Thinking Out Loud

By H. M. L.

Why the kiyi-ing and yip-yip-yippping about a prayer from the Canadian Church of England prayer book, read in the service last Sunday in the church the President attends. The book was a gift to the rector from the King and Queen following their attendance there during their recent visit. Why not offer a prayer for the King Emperor and Queen Empress? They proved themselves very likable people while in this country. They apparently relished their U. S. A. hot dog picnic lunch. We rather approve a prayer in their behalf. Does anyone wish to offer a prayer for Hitler, Goebels, or Goering? Let them do so. This is a free country. Our private opinion is that the "Aryan" trio need a deal of praying for.

Anyone who seeks to make a political issue of a prayer offered for anyone, we set down as being a little lower than a serpent's nether side. There are plenty of issues, real ones, between thinking people in this country and the administration in Washington, without forcing a prayer uttered in behalf of the King and Queen into a position of first importance.

Far more important is the New Deal's reduction of a large proportion of our population to a condition, spiritual and material, of mendicancy. That needs little evidence to prove. The fact that two vociferous spielers can set up a million dollar Ham and Egg show in California and draw into their tent several hundred thousand citizens reveals that the moral of American citizenship has steadily deteriorated under Federal relief until now we have millions of citizens believing (and acting on their belief) that the government owes them a living.

Some of our young people gladly foist their old folks onto the government's bounty. Our traditions of sturdy American independence have been thoroughly corrupted under the new doctrine of government help for everybody. Young women leaving employment in store or factories to to be married use their unemployment insurance as a kind of government dowery. They collect all the insurance they can lay their hands on, though as a matter of fact they are not unemployed, but have merely changed employments.

Another instance: A young man well beyond college age, who had spent a busy year in Nevada County inciting the CIO-communists to attempt at closing Nevada County mines, obtains from the National Youth Administration funds to pursue studies at one of the state's larger universities.

Thus the tale unfolds. Under guise of relieving the necessities of unfortunate victims of a badly wrecked economic system, the New Dealers have reduced a large section of the population to spiritual pauperism. Their integrity undermined, their personal pride of achievement destroyed, their ambition to do for themselves and to be self-sufficient and self-sustaining, overwhelmed, they are at length content to ride on the shoulders of their industrious fellow citizens.

How large a percentage of the 10 million unemployed belong in the above category no one can say. But, knowing the tendency of human nature, it would seem a safe bet that the proportion is growing from year to year. The fact that the New Deal spokesmen notably Harry Hopkins, insist that we shall always have a relief army with which the Federal government must cope, bodes ill for those self-supporting members of the body politic. If Hopkins is right each time Congress meets there will be a further attempt to jack up the taxes. Each time the taxes are jacked up, more business firms must succumb and more workers will join the relief legion. It is a vicious circle. The remedy for it is too drastic for our tender hearted politicians. Instead of increasing the various doles to various groups throughout the nation, the real remedy is gradually to reduce all relief, all subsidies, and force a gradual responsibility upon each citizen, not aged and not crippled, to provide for himself.

A new neon sign was installed in front of the Bottle Shop on Broad street yesterday afternoon adding another brilliantly lighted sign to the bright lights of the main drag.

CHAMBER SLAPS 30-THURSDAY

The Nevada City Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night added its name to the long list of civic organizations officially opposing Proposition No. 1, 30 Every Thursday, on the November 7 ballot. The move condemning the measure was unanimous.

The chamber, at their regular meeting presided over by Stenger Williamson in the absence of President E. B. Gallagher, also went on record as supporting Proposition No. 5, the Atkinson Oil Control Bill.

A. E. Presley, dance program chair man, suggested that the net proceeds from the dance to be held November 25 be used for advertising the new Nevada City ski course. He pointed out that merchants in the city would reap a double benefit from advertising in the program since the money would ultimately be used to bring many winter sports enthusiasts through this community.

After the regular meeting, a discussion was held to find out some means of getting a larger turnout of members to the meetings. According to H. F. Sofge, secretary, speakers and programs are available and an attempt will be made to have them presented.

SUPPRESSED CHINESE STAMPS RECEIVED HERE

Mrs. Orlando McCraney has just received a set of four late Chinese stamps in blocks of four from her husband in the Philippine Islands. The stamps were removed from circulation a few hours after they were put on sale. The issue was China's first philatelic gesture of good will toward this republic across the Pacific in the form of a stamp issue commemorating the sesqui-centennial of the founding of the United States. Due to the precise Chinese characters in writing and delineation of the map of China in a way likely to raise an embarassing international boundary issue the stamps were removed from sale.

The highly colored stamps were the 5, 25, 50c and $1 demoninations. The American flag was prominently displayed across one corner of the stamps. These stamps will become more valuable to stamp collectors as the years go by due to the small number sold.

LANDRIGAN TO FACE TRIAL ON TRAFFIC CHARGE

The trial of Byron Landrigan, charged with a violation of the motor vehicle code upon the complaint of Night Officer Frank Mizner, will be Wednesday, November 1, before City Judge Miles D. Coughlin.

Proceedings will be held in the court room of Judge W. L. Mobley in the court house who has consented to the use of the room for that purpose.

The alleged offense occurred several weeks ago. Mizner charged that Landrigan collided with the officer's car and filed a complaint against the defendant.

Landrigan will be defended by Harry W. McKee while City Attorney Frank C. Finnegan will conduct the prosecution.

A large group of Nevada City Residents are planning to attend the fair over the coming week end. Among those going are County Clerk and Mrs. R. N. McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stedger and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Stedger and child.

Misses Ruth and Reita Hutchison left yesterday for San Francisco to spend a few days visiting the fair and to attend the big game between University of California and University of Southern California on Saturday.

Bob Tucker who has been stationed at Sierraville with the Tahoe national forest came down and after a visit with his mother Mrs. Emma Tucker in this city left on Wednesday for San Francisco. He will spend a few days at the fair.

George Calanan, city clerk, is spending a few days in San Francisco visiting relatives and attending the fair.

POT LUCK SUPPER FOR NEVADA CITY FIREMEN

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Nevada City fire department are making plans for a Hallowe'en party entertaining the local fire department members in the firemen's hall Tuesday evening. A pot luck supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Louise Dudley is chairman of the entertainment program. Gay Hallowe'en motifs will be used throughout the hall and on the table for decorations.

JOHN HUBBARD HELD TO ANSWER ON AUTO THEFT

At the conclusion of the preliminary examination held Wednesday afternoon, Judge W. L. Mobley directed that John N. Hubbard, Jr., charged with grand theft, be held over for trial in the superior court with bonds fixed at $2,000. In default of bail he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

Hubbard allegedly took a car belonging to Forrest Thurston of Glenbrook from a parking station without the owner's consent. Night officer Lionel Davies, after a 70 mile an hour chase, overtook the fleeing Hubbard near the White Cloud CCC camp.

At the examination, Thurston testified the automobile was taken without his permission. Davies described the chase and capture of Hubbard after receiving a description of the stolen car over the radio.

District Attorney Vernon Stoll conducted the prosecution and the defendant appeared without counsel and offered no evidence to refute the charges.

P. T. A. TO MEET IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TODAY

A meeting of the third district of parent-teachers associations will be held at the Nevada City elementary school today.

The sessions are scheduled to start at 10 o'clock in the morning and continue throughout the day. Parents and teachers from El Dorado, Sacramento, Placer and Nevada counties will attend. Mrs. W. D. Alexander of Sacramento, district president, will preside at the business sessions. One of the features of the meeting will be the appearance of Mrs. James K. Lytle, president of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The executive board will meet at 9:30 o'clock, before the regular meeting.

Mrs. A. Deschwanden, president of the local high school association and Mrs. Clyde Gwin, president of the elementary group, are in charge of committees making arrangements for the meeting.

CLARK WAITE BUYS HOTEL WASHINGTON

Mrs. E. J. Haverstock left yesterday for Ely, Nevada, where she expects to remain for a few weeks on business. From there she will go to Glenn's Ferry, Idaho to visit her brother a few weeks. She will return to Nevada City and take some personal belongings with her to Taft where she expects to make her permanent home. Mrs. Haverstock sold her hotel property in Washington to Mr. and Mrs. Clark Waite. The deal was made about two months ago and Mr. and Mrs. Waite are making several changes with a view of opening the hotel to summer trade. It is a nice vacation spot and the South Yuba river runs just below the hotel. Trout fishing and hunting in season are good in the district.

Mrs. Haverstock and her late husband resided at Washington many years and the best wishes of the little community and Nevada City go with her to her new home.

Gus Orzalli visited with friends in Marysville last week end. He is planning on a trip to Reno to visit friends next Sunday.

MRS. GUENTHER WILL CELEBRATE 90TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Mary Schneider Guenther of Boulder street will celebrate her 90th birthday on Sunday with her son and daughters in a family reunion. Hattie Legg, who is about ninety two years of age, and Mrs. Guenther are this city's oldest living pioneers.

Mrs. Guenther was born in St. Louis, Pike county, Missouri, October 29, 1849 and came to California with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schneider when only six years of age, in January of 1856.

The father was a butcher and settled his family in the only house he could find on Commercial street near the Wise brewery. It was back of the present Elks building and before there was such a thing as a Chinatown in that section. Just about as soon as they were settled a fire started in a building at the corner of Broad and Pine streets and swept toward Commercial street burning all houses in town, except a few brick houses on the eastern part of Commercial street. The mother was so frightened she grabbed a feather bed. Everything else was destroyed. Mrs. Guenther did not even have her shoes. She was barefooted and terribly frightened. A man came by and took her out toward Sugar Loaf and placed her in a stage coach with some traveling actors and actresses who were about ready to leave the city. Her mother and uncle searched frantically and found her sitting high upon the baggage eating a raw turnip and crying for her relatives. Nevada City was a town of several hundred inhabitants and sleeping places were scarce. The Schneider family spent the night in the brick Shellhouse brewery up near the court house on the floor and with almost no bedding.

Mrs. Guenther has lived in Nevada City over eighty years. Her father found a tiny house to live in where the Dave Richards home is now located on Boulder street and the family has remained on that street ever since. She has lived in her present home over sixty years.

Her father had a cattle yard above the Richards home, and several horses were kept in a barn on the lot. His slaughter house was down on the ditch. The cattle were herded outside of town during the day. Schneider built the house where Ronald Fraser now resides on Boulder street. He died when only 35 years of age when his daughter was but twelve. She first attended the private school of Mrs. Rudolph on upper Nevada street, the mother paying $4 per month tuition and buying the books. The child attended high school in a frame building where the present Episcopal church stands and Mr. Powers, father of Federal Attorney Powers of San Francisco, was the teacher.

Charles Marsh, who resided in the present Sawyer house, brought the first water to Nevada City. It was served to customers by an open V-trough at first. The principal mine operating in the district was the Manzanita gravel mine

Mrs. Guenther married the late Henry Guenther when she was only sixteen years of age. A year later she recalls visiting in Dutch Flat when Chinese were building the transcontinental railroad. The tracks were being laid through the town and many of the Chinese were camped down near a small stream below the town.

She recalls when Dr. Hart, greatly loved physician of the town, drove the golden spike at the Narrow Gauge depot in commemoration of the completion of the Narrow Gauge Railroad sixty years ago. Open cars with rails about the sides, carried picnic crowds from Nevada City and Grass Valley to the Ismert Grove in the Glenbrook district for many years.

Five of Mrs. Guenther's eight children are living. They are, Mrs. J. F. Dolan, Mrs. Minnie Allen, Miss Kate Guenther, Frank Guenther, Nevada City, and Mrs. Annie Johnston of Oakland.

Ellsworth Colley of Tudor is spending a few days in Nevada City assisting in his father's confectionery store. His father, J. F. Colley is enjoying a weeks vacation in San Francisco and at the fair.

YOUNG MAN CONVICTED OF THEFT FINED $100

J. D. Rafferty, law enforcement offcer for the Tahoe national forest, appeared with two youthful CCC enrollees in the local court yesterday who were charged with petty theft. One youth was turned loose and the other, Ralph Wilson, was fined $100. Unable to pay the fine he was placed in the county jail to serve out the time.

CLERGY IN TWO FISTED BATTLE ON HAM & EGGS

Leading churchmen all over California have joined in a crusade to save the state from economic disaster. Regardless of creed, and thoroughly in the spirit of making American democracy work to ward off subversive influences, church leaders through California are united in militant opposition to the 30-Thursday (Ham and Eggs) Act to be voted on November 7, 1939. Read and consider with care the following words of democratic wisdom from some of California's wisest and most useful citizens:

Bishop James Chamberlain Baker, of the California Area of the Methodist Church says:

"The political implications of the 30-Thursday Act are terrifying to persons who believe in our form of government. It is not democratically conceived and, for its execution, the most autocratic and uncontrolled despotic power is given to a self-appointed oligarchy. It provides for a super-government, responsible neither to the executive, legislative nor judicial branches of state government. There are no checks upon the authority of these self-appointed men. Irresponsible power is always enormously dangerous and should be resisted. This measure is so dangerous to democratic government that failure to oppose it puts one on the side of autocracy. Dictatorships have often made headway because men will not stand up and be counted in opposition".

"30-Thursday is an obvious menace to our democratic ideals and our general constitutional frame-work. It constitutes an irresponsible authority with powers greater than those given, so far as I know, to any other high official in American life. It seems to me that the whole project is full of disastrous possibilities."

Right Reverend Noel Porter, D. D., Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Sacramento, says:

"I am opposed to the 30-Thursday scheme, because it imposes upon the faith and credulity of the aged and needy by promising a temporary Utopia without the means of fulfilling the promise, and, because it is an attempt to set up a financial dictatorship, one that threatens our homes, our schools, our churches, our labor and industry. It threatens all with disaster."

Very Reverend James M. Malloch, Dean, St. James Cathedral, Fresno, says:

"I am absolutely opposed to the proposed Ham and Eggs Act, although I believe in old-age pensions and the fundamental principles of economic security. I am opposed to the present measure, because I believe it to be impractical and because it goes too far in the direction of governmental economic dictatorship. In other words, I regard it as both fantastic and un-American."

LODGE TO FILL CHAIR OF EXALTED ANTLER

A special meeting of the Antlers Lodge will be held Monday evening in the Elks Hall to elect an Exalted Antler. E. T. Bonner, who was elected the first of October to succeed in the annual election of officers resigned at the last meeting because of his work in other cities.

Craig Davies, Leading Antler, is in line for the office but does not wish to take the office until his term as Leading Antler has been completed, which will be next April. Fred Garrison, Past Exalted Ruler, will preside at Monday's meeting. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Bert Davidson of North Bloomfield was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

FIVE MEN FACE ACCUSATION OF HIGHGRADING

Five men accused of violating the Federal gold reserve act were arrested in Grass Valley Tuesday by Charles B. Rich, of the U. S. Secret Service, and John Bongard, enforcement officer for the State Division of Mines. The men arrested were James Reed, taxi driver, formerly of this city, Walter Jones, Watt Park, William A. Davies, Earl Friend and Dan Redmond.

They were taken to Sacramento and there charged with selling more than $10,000 worth of stolen gold to a San Francisco buyer. The men declared they had mined the gold. Redmond was arraigned in San Francisco and his preliminary hearing was held yesterday, the other four will be arraigned in Sacramento in the Federal court.

PROPAGANDA IS TOPIC AT ROTARY CLUB

Robert Deward, news editor of the Morning Union, at yesterday's Rotary luncheon defined propaganda and told of its relations to the war aims of the belligerents in Europe. He stated that there are three varities of war propaganda, first, that kind intended to maintain the morale of the nation, second, propaganda to instill hatred of the enemy, and third, propaganda to win the sympathy of neutrals.

An instance of the first, designed to hearten the home forces are such stories as those told of the first British air raid on the Kiel canal and German war vessels there. Both Germany and Britain magnified the incident in favor of each of its own people. The second is illustrated by the atrocity stories used in Germany to incite hatred of the Poles, and stories originating in Poland of the airplane machine gunning by Germans of Polish peasants working in the fields. The third division of propaganda directed at winning the sympathy and assistance of neutrals form a tremendous portion of all war propaganda, and are found in the speeches of prime ministers and war ministers, generals and prelates. These leaders in belligerent countries, in brief, try to sell their version of war reasons and war objectives to the neutrals. Democracies are especially susceptible to propaganda which excites their hatred of other forms of government.

Deward stated that he believed it should be the part of all American editors to cut out as much of the propaganda as possible received from the news associations. He stated that his paper did exercise a censorship on European war news, and passed around several examples of propaganda which had failed to make the coluns of his journal because of its obviously biased and distortion cleverly woven into the actual news story.

STOLEN STORES WORTH $250 ARE RECOVERED

Sam Frey came down from the Nevada Irrigation District camp at Bowman Dam Tuesday and returned with supplies for the storehouse. In the load was $250 worth of food stolen recently by several youths and recovered by the sheriff's office. They were stored at the court house. One item alone in the loot was seven cases of condensed milk.

The supplies in the storehouse are for crews sent into the mountains during the winter for repair work from snow slides such as flumes being torn out by slides and also for spring reconditioning crews.

It was snowing when Frey left camp and the ground was white with snow but the truck made the trip successfully.

"Who's Who" In 30-Thursday?

Last week Franklin D. Roosevelt re-emphasized his condemnation of 30-Thursday as a "fantastic fiscal scheme" and warned Californians against the disaster of being "misled by those who advocate short cuts to Utopia"—while one Lawrence Allen declared that "Ham and Eggs" solves the problem of security for the old, solves unemployment, and assures prosperity."

Mr. Roosevelt is President of the United States. Lawrence Allen is a "Ham and Eggs" promoter. He is a brother of Willis Allen, fellow promoter and former hair-tonic salesman, who was convicted in Federal Court a year or so ago for misuse of the mails. Lawrence himself was under investigation by the Los Angeles grand jury last year on alleged bribery charges.

Also last week E. W. Wilson asserted that "not only would the plan cost more money than the total earned by all employed Californians, but it sets up a dictatorship of a few self-nominated men. It authorizes them to organize a bank, in which State, cities and counties must deposit all funds—a bank operated by men not responsible to any of our regular constituted authorities. It will produce chaos and is unthinkable." But Mr. Wilson is entirely wrong, according to one Nathan T. Porter, who declares the whole scheme is perfect.

Mr. Wilson is California State Superintendent of Banks. Mr. Porter is the widely proclaimed "banking expert" for 30-Thursday. But "Ham and Eggs" propagandists overlook proclaiming that the last bank "experting" Mr. Porter performed was as president of the defunct "Thrift Corporation" of Los Angeles when it failed and wiped out $4,000,000 in savings belonging to 30,000 small investors! He hasn't had a bank job since!

So it goes. On one side, condemning 30-Thursday, are such men as President Roosevelt, Governor Olson, Senator Hiram Johnson—and all reputable economists and tax-experts. On the other side are such "leaders" as Lawrence and Willis Allen, Nathan T. Porter, and—not to be overlooked—Roy G. Owens, self-styled "engineer-economist," who is recognized neither as an engineer nor an economist by any authoritative body. And the only political organization that has espoused "Ham and Eggs" is the Communist Party.

Without examining a single clause of the 30-Thursday measure, any sensible voter could decide his vote by a mere glance at the "who's who" of proponents and opponents!—Contributed.

Women Urge Peace

Millions of American women, especially California women, are launching an earnest drumfire of activity to stiffen the national will to peace. Nor is it the hysterical, purely emotional campaign of the "I Didn't Raise My Boy to be Soldier" type. Declares Mrs. J. V. Mendoza, Point Reyes club woman: "Peace doesn't mean blind pacificism. If an invader attacks us, American women will be out with shotguns themselves. But let's never again send American boys to die on other nations' soil in other nations' wars."

That tone runs through declarations of a growing list of varied groups, such as the W. C. T. U., the new Mothers of America, and the Federation of Women's Clubs—and thousands of individuals. Realistically, American women seem in general agreement that we need armed forces powerful enough to guard this nation against foreign aggression. But they also insist that we keep out of foreign wars—that we resist propaganda that might inflame us into rushing into such wars—that we protect America only.

America's womanhood has a right to speak on that subject—for mothers, always and always, supply the cannon fodder in the sons they bear. Every death on every battlefield breaks some woman's heart. Their campaign is a fine and worthy one, and their words—bullets aimed in a peace offensive—should steel the American will to peace.—Contributed.

Peace, Not War

When the stern tests of logic are applied to it, war is quickly stripped of even the few virtues it is sometimes supposed to possess. It has occasionally been thought, for instance that war stimulates invention and research. But a rapid glance at the record shows that this is far from being the case.

In 1916 the United States Patent Office received 71,033 applications for patents. In 1917, the first year of the war, applications dropped to 70,373, and in 1918, to 59,615. Immediately after the war there was a spurt in science and invention and the Patent Office received 80,400 applications.

A period of rapid expansion in research and invention was interrupted by the Spanish-American War, and patent applications fell from about 48 thousand in 1897 to less than 36 thousand in 1898. There was a similar decline in the emergence of new ideas during the Civil War. Applications for patents on the brainchildren of inventors and research workers dropped from 7,653 in 1860 to 4,643, in 1861, and it was not until peace was declared that patent applications rose to pre-war heights.

The same story is told by the records of the British patent office. In 1913, the year Great Britain declared war, that office received 30,077 applications for patents. By 1917, the number had declined to 19,285.

And so the arguments why industry wants peace continue to pile up. Industry wants peace so that it can continue its constructive research and progress towards a higher standard of living. That is increasingly evident the more logic is applied to the case.—Contributed.

IT'S ABOUT TIME!

The More Deadly Of The Species

Congressman Martin Dies, head of the Congressional Committee investigating subversive elements in America, has indicated that more than 2,000 Communists may soon be removed from the Federal payroll. And Americans have applauded.

But in the midst of the enthusiasm over such a prospect perhaps the full import of the disclosure that this many "Reds" were holding government jobs has been overlooked.

It is of tremendous import, not because it represents several million dollars a year out of the taxpayer's pocket for their salary, but because it reveals Communism more deeply rooted in America than even some of the most ardent so-called red-baiters believed.

The popular concept of a Communist, in the minds of most people, is a bushy-haired individual haranguing listeners frim a soap box in New York's Union Square. There are many such haranguers in New York and other communities, but they are comparatively harmless beside the type now uncovered by the Dies Committee.

Those now exposed are the deadlier of the species, for they, like some other types of racketeeers, carry on their nefarious activities behind the cloak of respectability.

Americans wish Mr. Dies every success in his efforts to rid the Federal payroll of this menacing element. —Contributed.

ELKS BENEFIT GRID GAME SET DEC. 3 IN SACTO.

For the third consecutive year Sacramento Ben Ali Temple Shrine Band of over 100 pieces will participate in the annual intersectional football game sponsored by the Sacramento Elks Lodge.

This year the Ben Ali Temple Band will musically represent Creighten University of Omaha when they play football with the University of San Francisco in Sacramento Stadium on December 3.

The Shrine Band represented Gonzaga in 1937 when the Gonzaga team played Santa Clara, and they also played the Detroit University college songs when the "Titans" came to Sacramento last year to upset Buck Shaw's "Broncos."

The Ben Ali Temple Band is one of the most colorful musical organizations in California. They will sit on the west side of the Sacramento Stadium on December 3 as official musica representatives of the Creighton University, and also participate in ceremonies between halves.

Creighton and U. S. F. have evenly matched football squads, according to Midwest and Pacific Coast football scribes, and the December game in Sacramento promises plenty of gridiron thrills.

Tickets for the event may be obtained from Elks Lodges in Northern California cities or from the Creighton University of San Francisco headquarters, fourth floor, Elks Temple, Sacramento. Seats between the two 20 yard lines sell for $1.65, and the remaining seats in the stadium are $1.10. Reservations may be made immediately.

FOREST SERVICE THEFT RESULTS IN $100 FINE

According to a report from the Tahoe national forest, Jay T. Hart, 24, of Rocklin, California, was arrested by the law enforcement officer, J. D. Rafferty, of the Tahoe staff on Friday, October 20, for the theft of gasoline and tools from a government owned tractor being used on a road construction project between Robertson Flat and Greek Store, Placer county. Hart entered a plea of guilty in the court of Justice of the Peace Frank Beckstrum, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or serve fifty days in the Placer county jail.

QUITS

ENTIRE STOCK MUST AND WILL BE SOLD

After many years in business in Nevada City we decided to quit and want to thank our loyal customers whom we have served the past years. During these many years it has been our aim to sell only standard brand merchandise. This entire stock of Men's Clothing, Furnishings and Shoes, greatly reduced for quick liquidation at public sale. Everything goes—nothing reserved. Unfortunately due to conditions in foreign countries all merchandise is advancing; but now at the beginning of the fall season you are able to buy your needs far below pre-war prices.

STORE IS OPEN UNTIL 8:30 P. M. FRIDAY & SATURDAY to accommodate those who cannot shop during the day.

BERT WHEELER HEADS CAST AT SHOW SATURDAY

Bert Wheeler and Marie Wilson make up the very promising new laugh team which heads the cast of "The Cowboy Quarterback," the Warner Bros. comedy opening Saturday at the Nevada Theatre.

Everybody else in the picture which is hilarious comedy from start to finish, also serves as a contributor to the fun, even the usually serious Gloria Dickson, who is co-featured with the Wheeler-Wilson team. Others prominent in the cast include William Demarest, DeWolf Hopper and Eddie Foy, Jr.

As the title indicates, the new funfilm is about football, but it is not about college football. It concerns the professional game, and all of its heroics are on a strictly cash basis.

Wheeler plays a marvelous open field runner whose fame has spread even from his little town in the cow country to the headquarters of the Chicago Packers, a pro team managed by Demarest. Marie is not only Bert's girl friend, but she is also a sort of female Svenkali, whose supervises his every action, including his actions on the football field.

JUST WONDERIN'

I wonder if you hear her calling—calling,
California calling now to you and me,
Pleading in the dusk of autumn twilight,
"Save me; keep me ever strong and free."
California, sovereign realm of grace and beauty,
In the faith of those who loved you long ago,
We will conquer every force which would enslave you,
We will keep your fires of liberty aglow.

I wonder what would happen if, while you were skating on thin ice. familiar voices from the shore should cry out: "Stop—Danger Ahead!" Would you plunge on, recklessly determined to reach your objective no matter what the cost, or would you pause in your mad race and conscientiously try to ascertain the nature and seriousness of the peril confronting you? The latter course would be the safe and reasonable one to pursue, now wouldn't it?

California voters, we are on thin ice; if we go much farther, it will crack up in all directions and let us through; moreover, we shall have no choice between sinking and swimming —we shall go straight to the bottom and stay sunk.

Familiar and authoritative voices are telling us to "Beware!" Would it not be well to heed their accumulated warnings? Would it not be well to stop chasing a will-o'-the-wisp, or Thirty Thursday, which can only lead us into the deep dark and very icy waters of catastrophe.

I wonder if before casting our ballots, next November 7, we may pause to recall and consider these facts; from the first day of her statehood, even down to the present moment. California has been free; in the presence of her sister states, she stands erect and strong; from the blue field of Freedom's Banner, her star shines forth undimmed. California has never been enslaved by false ideologies, she has never known the weight of unrestrained power wielded by inexperienced and incompetent hands; she is our Golden California, proud, resourceful, untrammeled and courageous. Shall we, the guardians of her high estate allow her to be fettered now? Let us rsepond in unison. "No, a thousand times No!"

I wonder why modest violets who shrink so ostenstatiously from hated publicity, keep right on doing and saying things which they must know will focus the glaring white light full upon them.

I wonder at the varied implications contained in our neutrality debates; we are told that those who advocate the repeal of the arms embargo are getting us into the war on the side of France and England; if that is the case, are those who wish to retain it, pushing us into war on the side of Germany? There are so many idle words. I do hope that no one will attempt to find how far they would reach if laid end to end.

Uncle Silas says: "I've sold all my laying hens; I can't sell eggs for warrants and then go out and buy bran, wheat, chicken wire and hen coops with real money."

—A. MERRIAM CONNER.

GREYHOUND WINS SAFETY CONTEST

Bus Team Scores High In Traffic Safety Quiz

How far from a railroad crossing should you stop your car when there is an approaching train? Under what three conditions would a car coming from your left have the right of way? These and similar traffic problems, rules and regulations were fired at thirty-two teams of Exposition Exhibitors by Herb Herzenberg of the California Motor Vehicle Department, sponsor of a "Traffic Safety Quiz" on Treasure Island.

After three months of elimination rounds, four teams in the finals met in the California Building at the Exposition before a radio microphone to decide the winner. Out of a possible 900 score, the Pacific Greyhound Team came out on top with a score of 866.

Commander A. W. Scott, radio commentator and captain of the Greyhound Team, accepted the "Leland Cutler" trophy from ex-Senator Walter McGovern, San Francisco Police Commissioner. Supporting Commander Scott on the Greyhound team were Dick Gallagher, traffic representative; and Lloyd Sapp, bus driver.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By BARBARA PHARISS

The Girls League is planning its first event of the year. It will be a dance given in the high school gymnasium. It will be in the form of a leap-year dance. The girls will invite the boys, escort them there and act as escorts during the evening. There is much enthusiasm over this plan, and a large crowd will probably attend. The Girls League has many plans this year for entertainment and raising money. Some of the money will be used later on to send delegates from the senior and junior classes to the annual Older Girls conference.

YELLOWJACKETS VS. ROSEVILLE

The Nevada City Yellowjackets will go to Roseville on Saturday to attempt to even the score with them. The 'Jackets were not badly beaten in their first tilt with the Roseville Tigers, the score being only 6-0, the touchdown being made in the last quarter. Coach Ed Frantz hopes to have an entire team go and make a good showing. Although the team was badly beaten in their last game, they have chalked it up as experience, and in turn have improved. The boys will travel in the new school bus.

CHORAL PROGRAM

A group of thirty five boys and girls taken from the three chorus classes have been practicing for the past few nights, under the direction of Mrs. Marion Libbey. They will go to the grammar school today to sing before the district P. T. A. meeting. Some of the selections will be, Pale Moon, Smoke Gets in Your Eyes, and Shortenin' Bread. A new song has Holiday. It will probably not be sung in public until later.

YELLOWJACKET BASKETBALL SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

Tomorrow the Nevada City high school C basketball team will embark on a stiff four game schedule when they travel to Roseville and play the Roseville C's on their court.

The schedule for the 'Jackets C team for the year is as follows: Saturday, October 28th, Roseville at Roseville; Wednesday, November 1, Grass Valley at Nevada City; Friday, November 3, Oroville at Oroville and Friday, November 10, Grass Valley at Grass Valley.

Nevada City high school had to forfeit all of their D games this year because of lack of material.

"MISS SECRETARY - TAKE A LETTER . . . . .

Nevada County Narrow Gauge Railroad—
Gentlemen—

"As president of the ABCD manufacturing company, and a big shipper on your line I want to know why my freight rates on shipments are no lower than those of the XYZ Company, which is a far smaller concern and consequently a smaller shipper."

That's a fair question, worthy of the asking, worthy of an answer:

Railroading is one of the United States' most democratic industries. Its equality of treatment to patrons is reflected in the clearly defined rates of freighting. The business of each shipper is respected and given every attention—the single piece for shipment meriting the same courtesy and attention as does the freight car string that is whisked away from the mighty production plant or factory. The shipper of an occasional box of fruit pays no higher rate than would a shipper of the same box — even though the latter were a shipper of volumnous tons of freight. Simply because the railroad has founded its successful business upon a policy of EQUALITY TO ITS PATRONS!

(Incidentally the prevalent low and equal railroad freight rates comes under the heading of 'Good Business,' as it corresponds in character to the regulations of Fair Trade Acts, such as exist in California, for the protection of producer, merchant and consumer.)

In addition to popular low rates—which are at all times subject to the approval of that high governing body, the Railroad Commission—your railroad gives—

JOHN Q. PUBLIC GETS A JOLT

Jolted again was John Q. Public, this month, when he read the semi-annual report of the Civil Service Commission. He learned that nearly one million people hold jobs in the executive branch of the government alone—the highest number in the nation's history.

There were 920,310 civil employees as of June 30, 1939, and it was predicted that the million mark would be passed before the end of this year. These figures do not include the legislative or judicial branches, the military or naval forces, people on relief, or farmers, all of whom get money from the taxpayers.

Previous high peak in government employment was 917,760 at the end of the war in 1918. After that it declined for a time to around 500,000. A sudden climb began in 1933 and now, in 1939, the war-time peak is exceeded.

And the trend is still upward!

Next football game you see, look at those rooting sections and say to yourself: "Would I be willing to send those boys to their death in ANY European war?"

America is getting a grand and timely lesson on Europe's game of power politics. So far, the lesson is free.

Observers are beginning to comment on the way Der Fuehrer outsmarted himself by inviting Stalin to his party. They believe that, when he unleashed the Russian bear, he signed the death warrant to his own dreams of world dominion and presented the rest of Europe with an appalling situation. Even now, they see the weird possibility that France, England and Germany may yet be fighting side by side to stop Russia!

Will that be a "battle for democracy" too, or just for balance of power?

David Milton Proctor has recently authorized a corking little book called "Riding High," Epigrams:

Unemployment will never end so long as the federal government keeps it on a salary.

Modern humbugs have proved more costly to agriculture than old-fashioned insects.

While the Supreme Court has lost some gray hair, it has not gained in grey matter.

I believe that history will chisel this inscription:

Here lies the New Deal
1933-1941
Its pretended aims: Relief, Reform, Recovery
Its actual achievements: Bankruptcy, Bureaucracy, Bondage.
Its last words: Retreating to Moscow!

A California rancher is showing around a letter he received from an Eastern friend who recently made a trip into the Dust Bowl of Western Kansas. Excerpts:

"You've perhaps heard that the Dust Bowl is conquered. In fact, while we were out there I saw in the papers a statement from some government men stationed at Amarillo, who were sent out to cure the dust storms. They said they had done the work—cured the Dust Bowl of its viciousness — and were pulling up stakes to go back East.

"Hell's fire! The day we got there, a big rolling dust storm met us. We were there four weeks and during that time we had 12 of the regular old 'Black Blizzard' kind of dust storms—not local dust, but the big, high and black rolling clouds that come in like real mountains, dense and fearful.

"And the Dust Bowl is cured.

Seven years of Secretary Wallace show what can be done in making a mountain into a mole-hill.

One of the nicest squibs in the Democratic platform of 1936 was that one about keeping the nation OUT of war. It said:

"We shall continue to observe a true neutrality in the disputes of others; to be prepared resolutely to resist aggression against ourselves; to work for peace and to take the profits out of war; to guard against being drawn, by political commitments, international banking or private trading, into any war which may develop anywhere."

Since that time we have flirted with every new European situation as it developed, including Abysinnia, the war in Spain and the present series of crises. Our neutrality has concisted in taking sides every chance we have had and talking loudly about it.

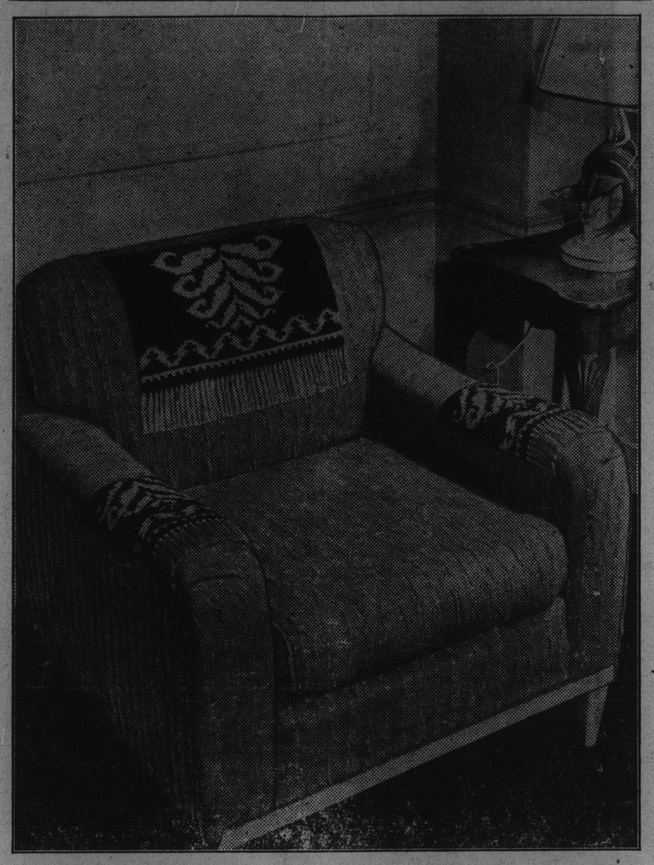
Hand-Crocheted Chair Set Smart



TWO colors of lustrous mercerized crochet cotton are used dramatically for a striking chair set in an Aztec design. Hand-crocheted, it is simple to make, and calls for only four balls of the cotton. It will be both handsome and useful in any home, and can also be entered in the Third National Crochet Contest this fall. Directions for crocheting it, and details of The National Crochet Contest may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to The National Crochet Bureau, 522 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Specify chair set No. 7165.

TUNA SALAD

A dainty salad for Sunday dinner or for a party is quickly made from the following recipe:

One can pimiento peppers.
One small can tuna.
Two cups macaroni, short cut preferred.
One half cup mayonnaise.
Salt and pepper to taste.

Mix all ingredients when macaroni is cooked, saving out one portion of the red pimiento to strip the top of the salad in a flower like pattern. This amount serves six.

CAMPTONVILLE WOMEN GIVE POT-LUCK DINNER

CAMPTONVILLE, Oct. 26.—The Womens Club sponsored a pot luck dinner a few evenings ago in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Flagg and Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Espinosa both families moving away from here to reside, the Flaggs going to San Francisco and the Espinosas to Pike City.

A delightful dinner was served after which a good time at card playing was enjoyed. The following were present: Miss Lydia Groves, Mrs. Claude E, McQueary, Mr. and Mrs. Julius E. Pauly, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Price, Gordon T. Price, Miss Elsie Price, Mrs. M. G. Calvin, Mrs. Olive Groves, A. H. Behrens, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morehead, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Meggers, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Flagg, Mrs. E. A. Espinosa.

COMMANDERY INSPECTION

Nevada Commandery held inspection in commandery Thursday evening and conferred the order of the temple on a candidate. Philip Keast of Grass Valley is Commander; John Robinson, past commander of Auburn lodge, conducted the inspection. A delegation from Auburn attended the meeting. A banquet was served at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs Leland Smith and children, Betty Smith and sons, Leland and Warren, left Monday for a visit in the bay district to attend the fair.

Guardian of Life and Health

A reserve of 44,000 Red Cross registered nurses stands ready to aid in preserving the life and health of the nation. Typical activity of Red Cross nurse is shown, working in clinic under doctor's supervision. Red Cross nurses are nation's reserve for Army, Navy and Government hospital service, and also to serve civilians in epidemic or disaster. The Red Cross Nursing Service is supported by members who join the Red Cross during Roll Call, November 11 to 30.

Red Cross Nurse Reserve at Peak

Disaster Service, Home Nursing, Health Education, Keep Thousands Busy

Washington.—The Red Cross reserve of registered nurses qualified for immediate duty is stronger than ever before, Miss Mary Beard, director of the American Red Cross nursing services, announced.

"We now have a first reserve of 15,000 unmarried nurses under 40 years of age available for duty with the Army, Navy or government nursing services and subject to call by the Red Cross for disaster work," she said. "This is 700 more than any previous first reserve registration."

Miss Beard pointed out that the increase has been gradual and that only registered nurses meeting rigid requirements of training and physical fitness are enrolled. All classes of nurse reservists, including nurses now employed by the Red Cross, bring the reserve corps total to 44,283. During the World War of 1914-18 the American Red Cross mustered nearly 20,000 nurses for duty with Army, Navy and Red Cross hospitals, at home and overseas.

"Maintenance of the Nurses Reserve is provided by our charter and is in line with Red Cross policies of prevention and preparedness, but the peacetime work of our nurses is equally important," Miss Beard said.

The director explained that more than 2,000 nurses, chiefly home hygiene and care of the sick instructors, were regularly engaged in visiting the sick, aiding physicians in examining school children, conducting inoculation programs to stamp out contagious illness, launching trial nursing services in out-of-the-way communities, and carrying on important health education work to qualify family groups to care for sickness at home.

All nurses who are needed for Red Cross nursing activities are drawn from the Red Cross reserve of qualified nurses, Miss Beard said.

Last year Red Cross public health nurses made more than one million visits on behalf of the sick and gave skilled care to 272,729 persons.

Last year, in schools and clinics, nurses cooperated with physicians in examining 595,575 children, and aided in the task of correcting defects. Children examined were enrolled for the most part in rural schools where this type of preventive service is rare. There are 655 Red Cross nurses engaged in this work in 477 communities.

In the field of health education, Red Cross nurses have instructed more than 1,000,000 family members since 1914 in how to care for the sick at home and have set new standards of hygiene for the family. Last year the Nursing Service held 4,505 classes in home hygiene and care of the sick and awarded certificates to 61,296 persons who passed examinations on the subjects taught.

"Because the nucleus of all Red Cross nursing activity is our nurses' reserve, it is a source of great satisfaction that each month the list of applicants increases," Miss Beard said.

This service to the public is supported by the men and women who join as members of the Red Cross, through their local Chapters, during the Roll Call, November 11 to 30.

FOSSIL SHELL

Mrs. Will Davis of Willow Valley has a clam shell fossil on display in the Nugget office window which she picked up along the roadside near her home recently. Workmen had scraped the road and the fossil evidently came out of the bank.

ALASKA MINE

A huge pump was installed at the Alaska mine at Pike City and started unwatering the shaft on October 8. Water is now down about 200 feet in the 600 foot shaft with the pump handling 1100 gallons of water per minute. It is expected the mine will be unwatered in about a month.

There are 12 men employed at the property and they are working three shifts. When the mine is ready for operations plans are to work from the bottom of the shaft into ore that is reported to be rich.

Col. Miller of the bay district has an option on the property and H. L. Sorensen is in charge of operations. Ed Martz of Nevada City is hoist man.

During winter months in the past Pike City has been snowbound for several weeks at a time but the new company plans to keep the road open with a heavy tractor and snowplow equipment.

Elton Kendrick, local business man, and family spent a week in San Francisco and at the fair, returning home early this week.

LARGE GAIN IN GAS SALE TAX

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 26.—Showing the highest percentage of gain for any one month since August, 1937, gasoline sales during September amounted to 157,553,366 gallons, the State Board of Equalization reported today.

The tax assessed againt this total amounted to $4,726,600.98, an increase of 10.50 per cent over the same month of the previous year.

The board reports that with the single exception of April, each month's sales of gasoline during the current year have been greater than those of the same months of 1938. As a result it was anticipated that the record gasoline tax income of $51,601,430.04, achieved last year, probably would be exceeded in 1939.

The tax for last month was slightly under that for August when the board reported assessments amounting to $4,924,082.73. The peak in gasoline consumption usually is reached during August.

Oil companies reporting sales of more than 300,000 gallons in September were listed with the explanation that resale of gasoline previously taxed and exempt sales to the federal government or in interstate or foreign commerce accounted for differences between total sales and taxable sales.

TRIAL POSTPONED

The trial of Alfred Nicholson, charged with the commission of a statutory offense against a young girl, has been indefinitely postponed and will be reset for trial on the next court calendar day. The trial was originally scheduled for Wednesday morning.

Jurors for the trial have been notified of the postponements and will be notified later of the date for their appearance.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENTS

HAM and EGGS DICTATORS!

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THEM?

Nearly every intelligent voter, who reads before he votes, knows by this time that extravagant pension provisions of the Ham and Eggs scheme are just bait for the trap. The gold brick promise of 30-Every-Thursday is simply the come-on, designed to camouflage the fact that this Communist-backed program would give its promoters absolute power as DICTATORS OF CALIFORNIA!

WHAT ARE THE RECORDS OF THESE WOULD-BE DICTATORS?

HERE ARE THEIR RECORDS:

Willis Allen, director of the Ham and Eggs movement, was convicted in Federal Court in 1937 of misuse of the mails for fraudulent misrepresentation in a hair-tonic promotion scheme.

His brother, Lawrence Allen, co-director of Ham and Eggs, was on the front pages just a year ago on asserted forgery charges.

DO YOU WANT "THE ALLEN BOYS" AND THEIR TRIBE AS DICTATORS OF CALIFORNIA?

Nathan T. Porter, the Ham and Eggs "banking expert," was president of the defunct National Thrift Corporation when it went bankrupt a few years ago, wiping out millions of dollars in savings of 30,000 small investors.

DO YOU WANT MR. PORTER AS HEAD OF THE PROPOSED HAM AND EGGS BANK — FINANCED WITH YOUR MONEY AND AS SOLE CUSTODIAN OF YOUR TAX FUNDS?

●

Wake up, voters! California has been a good, clean place to live. Let's keep it that way. California wants no would-be Huey Longs. And California wants no part of the ruin and disaster that would follow enactment of the Ham and Eggs plan.

Miss Flossie Angove to Wed Boyd Armstrong

Miss Flossie Angove and Boyd Armstrong will go to Reno tomorrow and will be married at 8 o'clock in the Methodist church by a minister of that church. After the ceremony they will go to San Francisco for a honeymoon.

Miss Ruth Curnow, cousin of the bride, will come up from San Jose Friday and attend the wedding as bridesmaid. The newly weds will make their home in Nevada City.

The bride to be is a charming young woman. She is a native of this city and graduated from the local schools. She has been on the staff of the Nevada City Drug Store for two years and has made a wide circle of friends by her sweet winning personality.

Mrs. Blanche Brown Weds Raymond Myhre

Mrs. Blanche M. Brown, and Raymond Myhre motored to Reno, on Tuesday and were united in marriage. They are on a short honeymoon and are expected home today. The bride has been in the employ of the Shamrock Cafe for several years and has a wide circle of friends in Nevada City. The groom is employed at Schreiber's and is better known to his hosts of friends as "Milwaukee". They will make their home in a cosy little cottage on the Red Dog road near the home of the bride's brother in law, R. J. Berggren, local jeweler.

Elzear Folev Weds Miss Josephine Jessup

Elzear Foley and Miss Josephine Jessup were married in San Francisco yesterday. Mrs. Emma Foley, mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Dan Coughlan and son, Carroll Coughlan, aunt and cousin of the groom were also in attendance. Carroll Coughlan acted as best man.

The bride is a native of Visalia. The groom was born in Nevada City and holds a position as engineer with the state division of highways. Elzear Foley has scores of friends in this city where he attended the elsmentary and high schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Scheemer, owners of the Plaza grocery store, have returned from a week spent in San Francisc and attending the fair.

SIERRA SHELTER WILL BE BUILT FOR SURVEYORS

Snow surveyors making the long trek into French Meadows next winter will find food and shelter at the end of the trail, something lacking in former years.

Work has been started on the shelter under the supervision of G. E. Mitchell, acting Tahoe national forest engineer.

The state division of water resources is cooperating with the Tahoe forest in the project. Fred Paget, in charge of snow surveys for the state, and L. S. Smith, in charge of that work for the Tahoe forest, selected the site.

Smith said in the past it has been necessary to make two trips and duplicate considerable mileage on skis in covering the snow survey courses in French Meadows, Wabena and Indian Valley.

With the construction of the shelter, the snow surveyors will be able to cover the French Meadows course stop over night at the shelter, and take in the Onion Valley and Wabena courses on their return trip to Soda Springs.
